Jose,

I was informed by LAWA that Chayot Ing-aram is the contact and that they notified the City that the invoices should go to him.

Hi Laurie,

The latest invoice should have already been paid by now. I will follow up to get a confirmation that this is the case.

We have also contacted the Office of the City Clerk to send any future invoice to myself. Please feel free to contact me about any future unpaid assessments.

Subject: PBID Assessment

Hi Debbie,

I am trying to figure out the invoicing process for the City Agencies... i.e. LAWA gets billed for the PBID assessment through an internal city process. All other non-governmental stakeholders are billed through their property tax bill.

The City Clerk's office just told me that the invoice goes to the attention of Edward Maslin and Stephanie Young and are usually mailed in January each year.

We know that Ted Maslin is no longer with LAWA. The City Clerk's office needs to be told who to send the LAWA invoices to.

And, I would appreciate knowing who that person is so that I can follow up on the unpaid assessments... so that I don't have to bug you each year.

I would appreciate your help in getting this process set up so that the assessments are paid promptly.

Thanks,

Laurie Hughes
